COMMUNICATIONS REGULATORY AUTHORITY OF NAMIBIA

No. 466 2017

NOTICE OF WITHDRAWAL OF REGULATIONS REGARDING PROVISION OF ROAMING SERVICES FOR TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICE LICENSEES

The Communications Regulatory Authority of Namibia herewith gives notice in terms of regulation 11(b) of the Regulations Regarding Rule-making Procedures as published in Government Gazette No. 4630, General Notice No. 334 dated 17 December 2010 that it has withdrawn the Notice of intention to make Regulations Regarding Provision of Roaming Services for Telecommunications Service Licensees as published in the Government Gazette No. 5849, General Notice No. 453, dated 2 October 2015.

The reason for withdrawal of the said Notice is that other SADC countries are yet to participate in the SADC Roaming Project and implementing these Regulations will have a negative financial impact on Namibian Telecommunications Service Licensees.

The Authority will publish a new notice of intention to make regulations in future.

F. KISHI
CHAIRPERSON OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
